

Mrs. Blackford Classroom Expectations

- You are responsible to know and follow all of the rules in your student handbook.
- Be in class on time. You should be in your seat when the tardy bell rings.
- Be prepared for class. You must have your textbook, workbook, completed homework, notebook, and a writing utensil.
- Homework is due at the tardy bell at the beginning of the class period. All late homework will receive partial credit. Any work turned in after the tardy bell will be considered late.
- If you need help, please come see me. You may seek help before school or after school. Do not ask for help as class is beginning.
- Raise your hand and wait until I call on you to ask or answer a question. Listen and pay attention to me and the other students and you will learn a lot. Foreign language isn't easy, so we need to work together.
- You will receive 4 locker/bathroom passes per semester. You must have your agenda book signed to leave the classroom. Use your passes wisely. There will be no exceptions to leave the room once you have used your passes.
- I will only allow bottled water or bottled soda in my classroom. NO fountain drinks or cans.
- If you are absent, it is your responsibility to get your make-up work.
- You will be respectful of others at all times.

Failure to meet any of these expectations will result in disciplinary action. Consequences may include: verbal warning, parental contact, tardy, writing assignment, or discipline referral.
